Moscow, November 4.

PREPARATIONS are actually making for the Court's Departure for Petersbourg, which seems at present to be fixed for the 15th of next Month. For some Days past there has fallen a prodigious Quantity of Snow in these Parts, and the Frost is now set in very severe.

Venice, Nov. 16, N. S. We have just received Advice, that two Corsairs have made themselves Masters of a Vessel belonging to this Republick, after an Engagement of more than two Hours, and conducted her to Algiers; she was coming from the Island of Cephalonia, and her loading amounted to a considerable Value, which makes the Loss of her very sensibly felt here.

Stockholm, Nov. 18. The King seems at present much better in Health than he has been for some Time past, and has assisted very regularly at the several Councils which have been lately held. All our Letters from Finland agree, that every Thing is very quiet on the Frontiers, there not having been the least Motion, either in the Russian or our Troops, for some Time past.

Vienna, Nov. 19, N. S. Their Imperial Majesties, with the whole Court, are expected at the Favorite on the 29th Instant from Schonbrun for the Winter. Count Esterhasi is appointed Ambassador from this Court to that of Madrid, but the Time of his Departure is not yet fixed.

Dresden, Nov. 22, N. S. The Feast of St. Elizabeth, of which the Empress Dowager, the Empress of Russia, and the Royal and Electoral Princess, bear the Name, was celebrated at the Palace of St. Hubertsberg on the 19th Instant with great Magnificence; on this Occasion their Majesties received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction. The Count de Malechowski, Great Chancellor of the Crown, has taken his Leave of their Majesties, and is set out on his Return to Poland.

Copenhagen, Nov. 22, N. S. The Court still continues at Christianbourg, from whence the Duke of Holstein Ploen set out the 10th Instant on his Return home. The King has appointed the Duke of Schleswick Holstein Gluksbourg, Knight of the Order of the Elephant, Major-General of Infantry, and Colonel of the Regiment of Oldenbourg, to be Lieutenant-General of his Majesty's Forces.

Hanover, Nov. 25, N. S. The Duke of Saxe Hildbourghausen, with his Spouse the Princess Louisa of Denmark, arrived here from Altena on the 17th Instant, and the next Day continued their Journey for their own Country.

Berlin, Nov. 25, N. S. On the 19th Instant the Court went into Mourning on Occasion of the Death of the Duke of Holstein Beck, Governor of this City; and on the 23d, the Baron de Hopken set out from hence on his Return to Dresden. The King has conferred on M. de Montetton, the Rank of Colonel; and his Majesty has likewise appointed him to be Governor of the Fort of Prussia, near Neiss in Silesia.

Paris, Nov. 28, N. S. The Chevalier de Segur has brought Advice to the King, that the Infanta Dutchess of Parma, and the Infanta Isabella her Daughter, were safely landed at Genoa on the 6th Instant. On the 24th the King signed the Contract of Marriage between the Marquis de Breze, and Mademoiselle de la Chartre, which Marriage was celebrated the next Day.

Hambourg, Nov. 28, N. S. M. de Voss, whom the King of Prussia has appointed his Envoy Extraordinary at the Court of Denmark, is expected here this Evening from Berlin on his Way to Copenhagen. The Senior Counsellor of this City, M. Coldorf, died here last Week, in the Ninety-third Year of his Age, and left an immense Fortune.

Hague, Dec. 2, N. S. The Count de Bentheim Steinfort arrived here a few Days ago from Germany. This Morning died M. Jean vander Does, Counsellor and Treasurer-General of the Union, in the 55th Year of his Age. Their High Mightinesses, who still continue their Assembly, have nominated, with the Approbation of the Prince of Orange, the Baron de Wigbolt vander Does, to be Drossart and Intendant of the Digues of the City and District of Heulsden, in the Room of the Baron de Wassenaer Sterrenbourg. By our last Advices from Groninguen, his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange had, at an Assembly of the States of that Province, caused the new Council to be sworn in; and having received the Compliments of the Assembly, his Highness proposed to set out as To-morrow from thence for Leuwarden.

Dublin-Castle, Nov. 20.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales's Birth-Day, the Great Guns were fired at the Phœnix Park, and answered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks; and this Day at Noon there was a splendid Appearance of the Nobility and

In the Evening a Play was given by his Excellency to the Ladies; after which there was a Ball in the new Ball-Room, and the Evening concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonſtrations of Joy.

Whitehall, November 28.

The King has been pleaſed to grant unto Simon Viſcount Harcourt, and the Heirs Male of his Body lawfully begotten, the Dignities of a Viſcount and Earl of the Kingdom of Great Britain, by the Name, Stile and Title of Viſcount Newnham of Newnham Courtney in the County of Oxford, and Earl Harcourt of Stanton Harcourt in the ſaid County.
